

ComCorp, Inc Rated "Best in Search" by TopSEOs.com

ComCorp, Inc, a world-leading search engine marketing firm, has been ranked among the best in the industry for Integrated Search for November 2009 by TopSEO, the most respected consumer report in the industry.

Delray Beach, Florida (PRWEB) November 3, 2009 -- ComCorp, a prominent search engine marketing, pay-per-click marketing, and social media marketing company has been ranked #2 in TopSEO's Best 30 Integrated Search companies list. The category, reserved for companies offering a diverse range of search-related services, includes many other respected firms.

The selection criteria used by TopSEO includes the firm's range of services, feedback from the firm's clients, performance of the firm's campaigns, the firm's process, customer service, and their overall performance. The lists have become an important resource for businesses trying to find reputable search firms that exceed expectations, in an industry where others are implementing damaging 'black-hat' tactics.

Tammy Camp, CEO of ComCorp says, "We're very pleased to be recognized as one of the top-3 firms in the integrated search space, not only as a trusted resource but a proven leader. We feel the TopSEO rankings speak volumes about our company and the impact we have on our clients." She goes on to state, "Providing our clients with innovative services in diverse areas like PPC marketing and social media marketing is an integral part of what we do at ComCorp. Apparently, it shows."

ComCorp, Inc enjoys a 93% client-retention rate, serving small as well as enterprise-level businesses. William Dodds, a ComCorp client writes, "Before we hired ComCorp, Inc. we had zero web presence. Now, we are in every major search engine and our conversation rate on the internet has gone up by 300%. We are the #1 result out of 785,000,000 results for our search term – that's impressive. ComCorp helped us devise a marketing plan that meets our small business needs, they are the best investment we have made thus far."

Founded in 2004, ComCorp, Inc. is one of the world's largest and most experienced search engine optimization (SEO), search engine marketing (SEM), pay-per-click marketing, social media, and E-commerce consulting firms. Having helped hundreds of Fortune 1000 companies and small businesses increase qualified traffic to their Web sites, ComCorp's qualified and experienced professionals deliver superior performance and measurable sales results to their clients. Based in Delray Beach, Florida, ComCorp serves domestic and international clients located in the US, Europe, Asia, Australia, Africa and the Middle East.